6 [1]. The lawsuit was filed on August 2, 2023. The SCHEDULING ORDER (Doc # 39) issued
7 on January 3, 2024 states that the discovery (inclusive of depositions) is to end on October 2,
8 2024 and that the trial is set for October 20, 2025;

10 [2]. The lawsuit was amended on October 4, 2023. A counter-claim was filed by Dominick
11 Cuevas on 9/13/2023;

13 [3]. There have been numerous motions filed in the action. The parties, percipient witnesses, as 14 well as numerous entities with information that need to be subpoenaed are located in many States
15 across the United States. Plaintiff and defendants have yet to complete discovery. Some 16 discovery has been propounded and responded. However, as the cost of litigation is significant, 17 there have been discussions on the issue of settlement which have delayed completion of 18 discovery. The parties cannot complete discovery by the October 2, 2024 deadline imposed on 19 the August 2, 2023 Standing Order. Much of the discovery is pertaining to numerous planned 20 depositions of persons residing outside of Northern California including persons who are residents of other States;

22 [4]. For good cause all parties seek an order of the Court that the discovery deadline be moved 23 from October 2, 2024 to April 15, 2025;
